

English I: Writing: Module 1: Lesson 1: Section 3

Generate Ideas and Questions

Graphic Organizer: Brainstorming a Short Story

Directions: Use the picture to the right as a springboard for a short story. Begin by answering the questions in this graphic organizer. Mouse over the checkbox to see some sample responses.

Where is the setting?

Who is the person?

Why is the person sitting there?

What is the person doing?

What is the person thinking about?

Source: "Solitude," Les Chatfield, Wikimedia

A person sits by a large body of water and looks out toward the horizon.